LOCAL GATHERINGS.

—The hearing in the case of state v. E. C. Brooks for alleged disposing of goods by chance and allowing a lottery to be maintained in rooms occupied by him, was held Thursday. He was bound over to the June term of county court and bail was fixed at $300, but has not yet been furnished. He is now in jail.

—Strawberries, 28 cents per box at Worthen and Gleason's.

—The St. J. and L. C. Railroad bridge-men commenced work Thursday to build a new bridge over the Passumpsic river on Portland street.

—Mrs. Isabel Smith has returned from Boston and opened dressmaking rooms on the first floor of her cottage next to the Museum. She has done dressmaking for several years in the large cities of Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Hours from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m.

—Twenty-five pounds of sugar for $1.00 at H. F. Estabrooks'.

—The Marks Brothers Comedy Co., played with a change of program each evening to fair sized audiences in Armory hall the first three evenings last week.

—Worthen and Gleason will give 18 pounds sugar, 1 pound of tea and 1 pound coffee for $1.77.

—The Herald Square Co., gave an interesting moving picture show Thursday evening and a large audience enjoyed the entertainment.

—The Ladies of the W. R. C., will hold a food sale in the rooms formerly occupied by the "green stamp store" on Railroad Street Saturday afternoon, from 2 to 4.30. It is hoped that the sale will be well patronized as the ladies are working for a special object now, and as this is their first food sale they deserve a good trade. Baked beans and brown bread will be for sale and a good supply of other good things.

—A full supply of everything in the grocery line at H. F. Estabrooks' for $2.25.

—Gilman Bros., Carr & Worthen have purchased the livery business of Edgar L. Stanley on Central street and taken possession.

—The snowfall of an inch Sunday night still reminds us that April has been a cold month and that winter still lingers in the lap of spring. Even the migration of birds has temporarily stopped since the last cold wave. About the only consolation in the delay of the coming of spring is that a better sugar season has resulted.

—The best dried apricots, peaches, prunes, silver prunes and apples at Worthen and Gleason's.

—On his return trip Thursday Andrew Folsom was the proud possessor of a 17 pound pickerel which was caught in Lake Champlain.

—Music lovers will be glad to know that a concert by the Blaisdell String Quartet has been arranged for the evening of May 2nd to be given at the same place where previous concerts have been held—Brantview—and the proceeds to be devoted to Brightlook Hospital.

—The Green Mountain Casket Company are moving into J. O. Drouin's shop lately occupied by Mr. Arkley. They now employ seven men and the CALEDONIAN wishes success to our new enterprise and the re-opening of the Drouin shop. J. O. Drouin will occupy the first floor and secure the best help that he can find.

—The best lemon and vanilla extracts, 10 cents per oz. at Worthen and Gleason's.

—Bradstreet's weekly trade report says of conditions locally, "St. Johnsbury reports that better condition of the highways has caused more activity among the retail merchants and prospects are for a very busy spring trade. Wholesalers note an improvement, particularly in the grocery line."

—The 83d anniversary of Odd Fellowship will be observed by the local lodge next Wednesday evening, when they will give an entertainment of vocal and instrumental music and an address will be delivered. All Odd Fellows and their families will be cordially invited.

—The spring ceremonial session of Mount Sinai Temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, will be held in Montpelier on Thursday evening, April 27. The prospectus announcing this notable event is accompanied by numerous weather forecasts and a monologue attributed to Burns Gammell who lives "700 feet nearer heaven than St. Johnsbury."

—See H. F. Estabrooks' big deal for this week.

A. Silsby, Miss Carrie P. Underwood, Miss Mary E. Ide, Mrs. P. F. Hazen. The business of the meeting was concluded by the semi-annual auction of books.

—The flock of 31 chickens in the window of the Standard drug store is decidedly suggestive of Easter as well as indicative of the enterprise of the proprietor in securing advertising novelties. They are Rhode Island Reds hatched in an incubator about a week ago by Charles Thayer.

—Photographs of Norwegian scenery are on exhibition at the Athenaeum gallery.

—A fair-sized audience Monday and last evening witnessed the plays with Johnny Galvin as star in Armory hall. Both productions were musical comedies and abounded in singing, dancing and mirthmaking.
